

Major Scales

All major scales follow a formula of half steps and whole steps. Look at each notated scale below and mark the half steps with a slur. Identify the tonic (keynote) by drawing a whole note in the final measure of each line.

If it helps, you can color the keys on the keyboard to help you determine where the half steps are.

